In today's interconnected world, the intricacies of word formation form a cornerstone of communication. Just as the digital landscape has made the world a technology-oriented world, the evolution of language and the formation of words play a pivotal role in shaping how we express, communicate, and connect in this modern era. An exhilarating session on “Concept of Word Formation” was organized by the Department of Applied Sciences and Humanities on 24th March 2023 for the students. The session commenced with an introductory welcome to the speaker Dr. Nisha, Associate Professor, ASH by the coordinator and co-coordinator of the event, Ms. Nagma and Ms. Versha. The objective of the “Concept of Word Formation” session and Spell Bee practice was to cultivate a love for language, enhance students’ lexical repertoire, and foster a deeper appreciation for the nuances of words.

Through the session, Dr. Nisha focused on how attendees should gain practical strategies for enriching their vocabulary, while the Spell Bee practice aimed to provide a platform for participants to showcase their spelling acumen and linguistic dexterity in a competitive yet supportive environment. She tried to explain to importance of good vocabulary in the communication process and how it affects the coherent nature of the writing. Participants exhibited a marked enhancement in their linguistic proficiency and lexical adeptness. The session's focus on practical vocabulary expansion techniques yielded an observable increase in participants' word acquisition and usage, leading to a more diverse and impactful communication style. At the end of the session, a vote of thanks was given by (Prof.) Dr. Vinay Khatri (HOD, ASH) on behalf of the department to the expert of the session, extending gratitude for such an amazing session.
