Report on workshop– “Artificial Intelligence”

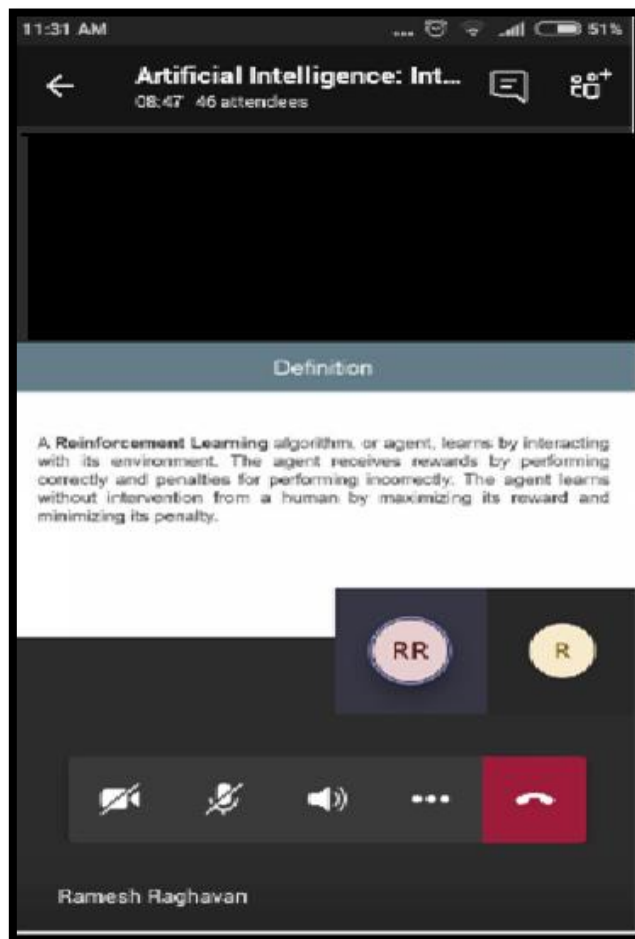

Date: May 03, 2020

Event Detail	Description
Name	Workshop on “Artificial Intelligence”
Organizer	Department of Computer Applications
Resource Person	Mr.R. Ramesh, Software Engineer Ubisoft, Noida, 8950304700
Platform	Zoom
Target Group	All BCA and MCA students
Time	10 AM onwards
Coordinator	Mr. Rohit Sharma, A.P., PIET (8295435967)

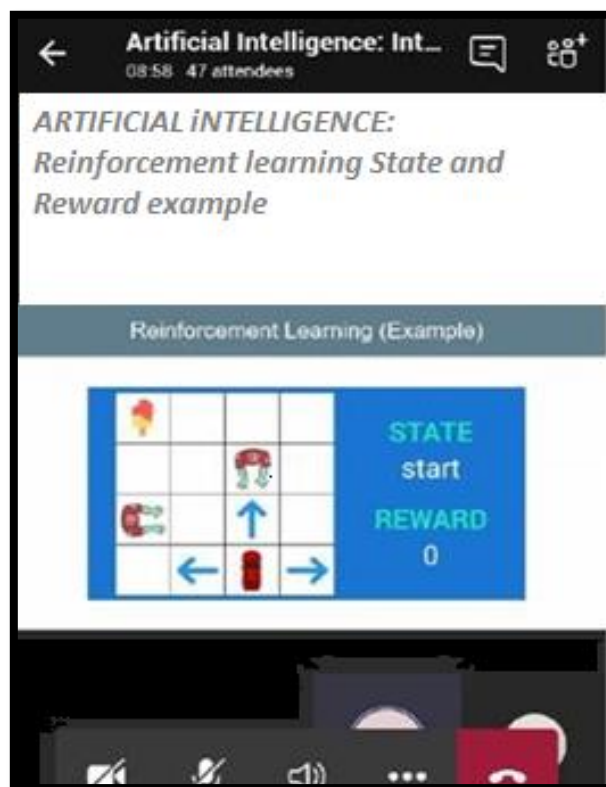

The Department of Computer Applications organized a workshop on Artificial Intelligence for BCA and MCA students. Mr. Rohit Sharma extended a warm welcome to the esteemed resource person, Mr. R. Ramesh. After the introduction, Mr. Sharma handed over the session to Mr. Ramesh who was prepared to share his expertise in AI with the eager participants. Mr. Ramesh, a renowned expert in AI, guided participants through the intricate world of artificial intelligence, focusing on fundamentals and practical applications.

The session covered comprehensive knowledge of Machine Learning, blending theoretical explanations with hands-on experience using TensorFlow. Students gained valuable insights into applying ML algorithms and understanding Reinforcement Learning concepts through carefully selected examples. Mr. Ramesh's engaging teaching style ensured that all students, regardless of their prior knowledge, developed a strong foundation in AI principles. Throughout the workshop, interactive elements encouraged student participation, fostering a deeper understanding of AI's potential. The event successfully met its objectives.

Dr. Dinesh Verma, HOD of the Department of Computer Applications, concluded the event with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to Mr. Ramesh, the students, and faculty members for their contributions to this successful and enlightening AI learning experience, which not only enhanced knowledge but also ignited enthusiasm for the future of AI among participants.
