An insightful lecture on “Developing Impactful Group Discussion Skills” was organized by the Department of Applied Sciences and Humanities on October 14, 2022, for the students. The session was delivered by Dr. Sakshi Gupta, Assistant Professor, PIET NCR College. The program commenced with a heartwarming welcome extended to our esteemed guest speaker by (Prof.) Dr. Vinay Khatri (HOD, ASH) and the coordinator of the event, Dr. Sonam Verma. The audience resonated with enthusiasm and anticipation as the speaker was warmly greeted, setting a tone of respect and appreciation for the insights soon to be shared.

Dr. Sakshi Gupta shared her valuable insights as the objective of the session was to provide participants with the necessary tools and techniques to actively engage in and lead effective group discussions. The lecture aimed to enhance participants' abilities to communicate, collaborate, and contribute constructively within a group setting, ultimately increasing their confidence and proficiency in language. By the end of the lecture, students were expected to have improved ability to actively listen and respond thoughtfully during group discussions. She insisted on enhancing skills in articulating ideas clearly and persuasively within a group context which was followed by the practice sessions of group discussion. She encouraged the students to form groups and articulate discussions for a practical experience. Lastly, a sincere gratitude and vote of thanks was given by the co-coordinator, Mr. Ashutosh to Dr. Sakshi Gupta for the profound and insightful discourse. The depth of her expertise and the clarity of her message have left an indelible impact on the students, and the program ended with a vote of thanks to the expert of the session.
