REPORT

TOPIC OF THE WORKSHOP: BEING EXPRESSIBLE WITHOUT DIALOGUES

SPEAKER: MS. REETU MEDHAWI, 9878691385

DATE: 6th APRIL, 2023

NO. OF STUDENTS ATTENDED: 67

Venue: Seminar Hall, 1st Floor, D-Block

Name of the Coordinator: Mr. Deepak Singla, AP, CSE

The workshop on "BEING EXPRESSIBLE WITHOUT DIALOGUES" began with a warm welcome and insightful introduction delivered by the Head of the AIDS (Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning) Dr. Devendera Prasad. He extended a heartfelt welcome to all attendees, including students, faculty members, and the esteemed speaker of the day, Ms. Reetu Medhawi. The objective of the workshop is to highlight the importance of gestures, body language, facial expressions and other non verbal cues in daily life. In his address, he highlighted how expressing oneself without relying solely on words becomes increasingly crucial in a world where interactions are often digital and indirect.

Following the welcome address, the workshop was taken forward by Ms. Reetu Medhawi, with an introduction to the concept of non-verbal cues and its relevance in everyday interactions. Participants were engaged in interactive sessions, group discussions, and practical exercises to analyse deeper into the topic. The workshop explored the nuances of body language, facial expressions and their correlation with emotions. Through interactive activities, students practiced identifying various emotions based on facial cues, enhancing their emotional intelligence. The workshop concluded with a discussion on the relevance of non-verbal cues in professional settings such as interviews, presentations, and meetings. Practical tips were provided to help students utilize non-verbal cues effectively to enhance their professional image.

The workshop on "Being Expressible Without Dialogues" concluded with a thoughtful and reflective end note delivered by the HOD of AIDS Department, Dr. Devendera Prasad. In his closing remarks, Dr. Devendera Prasad extended heartfelt gratitude to all participants for their enthusiastic engagement and active involvement throughout the workshop. He emphasized that their presence and contributions had significantly enriched the discussions and learning experience.

A special appreciation was directed toward the esteemed speaker, Ms. Reetu, whose practical techniques and real-life examples provided valuable tools that attendees could implement in both their personal and professional lives. Dr. Prasad concluded by once again thanking all participants for their involvement and extending special gratitude to Ms. Reetu for her invaluable contribution.
