An insightful one-day workshop on “Narrative Alchemy: Mastering the Art of Storytelling” was organized by the Department of Applied Sciences and Humanities on September 22, 2023, for the students. The workshop commenced with the warm welcome and introduction of the guest speaker Dr. Renu Dahiya whose keen interest lies in effective communication of thoughts through the art of storytelling by Dr. Nisha Dahiya, Associate Professor, ASH in the presence of (Prof.) Dr. Vinay Khatri, Head of the Department, Applied Sciences and Humanities.

The event started with the auspicious lamp-lighting ceremony. All the faculty members were present at that moment along with her. The expert started discussing how to develop proficiency in verbal and written communication, fostering clarity, coherence, and precision in their language usage. She also talked about how to cultivate active listening skills and the ability to comprehend, interpret, and respond effectively to various forms of communication. Additionally, she focused on enhancing students’ capacity to express ideas, arguments, and narratives fluently and persuasively, utilizing appropriate language and rhetorical devices.

Throughout the workshop, students demonstrated improved clarity, coherence, and precision in their verbal and written communication, resulting in greater effectiveness in conveying their intended messages. Attendees exhibited heightened listening comprehension and response capabilities, enabling more meaningful and engaging interpersonal communications. The program fostered a more empathetic and adaptable approach to intercultural communication, promoting harmonious interactions in diverse settings. The event concluded with a sincere vote of thanks to the speaker for the exceptional contribution made by the coordinator of the event, Ms. Nagma. The speaker's articulate delivery and profound knowledge of the subject provided valuable perspectives and food for thought, leaving attendees with a deep sense of appreciation for the enlightening session.
