The Department of Computer Application organized a comprehensive Skill Development workshop on Python Fundamentals for BCA and MCA students. The event began with a warm welcome to the esteemed resource persons, Mr. Sahil and Mr. Nitesh, recognized experts in Python programming.

The workshop covered a broad spectrum of topics designed to enhance participants' Python proficiency, starting with fundamental concepts such as syntax, data types, control structures, functions, and object-oriented programming. It then progressed to more advanced areas, including data handling and analysis using powerful libraries like NumPy and Pandas. The curriculum also introduced essential machine learning concepts, encompassing supervised and unsupervised learning techniques, regression, classification, and clustering. This well-rounded approach aimed to provide students with a solid foundation in Python programming, from basic to advanced concepts, while exploring its practical applications in data analysis, machine learning, web development, and automation. Participants gained valuable hands-on experience through projects and enhanced their learning.

The workshop concluded with a felicitation ceremony honoring Mr. Sahil and Mr. Nitesh for their expertise and dedication, which significantly enriched the Python Workshop experience. The Head of the Department expressed profound gratitude for their invaluable contribution to the students' learning journey.
