

Department of Computer Science and Engineering collaboration with ACM Chapter, IEEE Student Chapter and AICTE IDEA LAB, PIET, Samalkha, Haryana organized 1 Day workshop on “IPR Awareness and Patent Filing Process” held on 30 Nov,2022 at Block G-Ground floor, ET Lab. As institute has introduced three emerging courses and to run these courses successfully, there is a need to train faculty members at the best about the process of filing patents so that they can able to disseminate best practices to the convert their ideas into copyright. This initiative driven by Management, Director, Dean, Head of the departments will play a significant role for PIET Fraternity in future. The Workshop was inaugurated in the presence of Management-PIET, Director-PIET, Dean, HoD-CSE, Faculty Members and resource person of the workshop Dr. Pooja Kumar who is a women Entrepreneur and also Founder & Director of Innove Intellects LLP. Session was facilitated by Dr. BK Verma, Faculty coordinator and Dr Alankrita Aggarwal, Faculty Co-coordinator of the workshop welcomed the dignitaries and participants. During the span, the insightful session was delivered by Dr. Pooja Kumar on “IPR Awareness and Patent Filing Process” which enlightened participants at great extend and will definitely help in transforming their ideas into patents and business ideas as well help in the higher studies of faculty.

