Minutes of Meeting of Anti-Ragging Committee (2023-24)

As per office order dated 28 June 2023 a meeting of all the committee members was scheduled on 7 July 2023 at 11:00 am and the meeting started as per the schedule at director's office. The following agenda points were discussed in the meeting:

- To review the progress and performance of the anti ragging committee for the session 2022-23
- To plan anti-ragging measures to be taken in the upcoming session as per AICTE and UGC norms
- Any other agenda with the permission of the Chair

MoM:

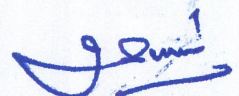

Director / Chairman of the committee asked the members of the committee about the previous year performance and problem faced by the committee members. The Anti ragging committee members briefed about the following points.

- I. Faculty members emphasized on the requirement of installation of CCTVs in class rooms as well as outside the class rooms. They suggested that every class room should have CCTVs, so that, any case of ragging is reported they can check and visualize the recording. Secondly installed of CCTVs will also help in preventing such incidents.
- II. The committee members also thank the HoDs for sparing faculty members for proctorial duty during the academic hours and these proctorial duties helped in maintaining discipline and preventing ragging in campus.
- III. The chief proctor gave awareness sessions on anti ragging also helped in disseminating the information to the newly admitted students. These awareness sessions also helped in preventing ragging.
- IV. As per previous year anti-ragging awareness were provided in the prospectus and admission form. Anti-ragging warnings are published in front of every academic block along with phone number of chief proctor. The committee also provides the same information on institute website along with anti ragging helpline number and complaint form.

- V. Special anti ragging squad were constituted for boys and girls hostel during and after academic hours.
- VI. Regular check of the campus was done by the anti ragging committee as well as anti ragging squad.

The chairman of the committee appreciated the efforts of the committee members and he asked the committee members to be more vigilant when the session will start. If they face any kind of problem the same can be communicated to the director's office and he assures that the problem will be resolved within minimum time. In the end the chairman of the committee appreciated the efforts of the committee members for keeping the campus ragging free.

The meeting ended with thanks to The Chair.
