Action Taken Report: 2023-24

Academic sections circulate the anti-ragging form, also known as an affidavit, to newly admitted students in the 2023-24 session. We ask every student and their parents/guardians to duly sign the affidavit. Every student understands that the Indian Penal Code and college code of conduct will punish any form of ragging in the institute.

1. Committee members emphasized the necessity of installing CCTVs both inside and outside of classrooms. Every corner of the campus boasts CCTV installations. The installation of CCTVs also helps in preventing such incidents.
2. The orientations program began with awareness sessions.
3. During the sessions, the Honorable Supreme Court of India and the governing bodies discussed the institute's policies and anti-ragging measures.
4. Committee shared the anti-ragging helpline number and the anti-ragging form with the students.
5. The website published the anti-ragging committee's details for easy access in the event of a ragging incident.
6. The orientation session about ragging also included a link to the Google Form where they can register complain.
7. In front of every academic block and central facilities, including the net café, anti-ragging warnings are displayed.
8. The institute premises also display anti-ragging posters and videos to enhance the spread of awareness.
